

Past paper story writing titles:

- The Competition.
- Write about an occasion when you were embarrassed by your family.
- Write a story which ends: ...and Sam felt so proud.
- Write a story which begins: My career on stage was short but it was certainly memorable.
- A Memorable Weekend.
- Write about a time when you had to make a difficult choice or decision.
- Write a story which begins: "You are not staying here on your own. Get in the car now," my mum said in that voice which did not allow any argument.
- Write a story which ends: I feared the worst but the teacher could not stop herself from laughing.
- Write a story which begins: I can clearly remember that family gathering.
- The Race.
- Write about a time when you felt let down by a friend.
- Write a story which ends: ...and I realised that some things are more important than money.
- Continue the following: It really wasn't the result I was looking for.
- Grandma.
- Write about a time when you had to go shopping with a relative.
- Write a story which ends: ...and I felt so sorry for myself.
- Write about a time when you broke the rules.
- The Wedding.
- A memory of primary school.
- Write a story which ends: ...and that was the worst job of my life.
- The Rebel.
- Write about a time when you lost your temper.
- The New Pet.
- Write a story which ends: ...and it showed Alex that we always have a choice.
- Write about a time when you were pushed to the limit.
- The day that changed everything.
- Write a story that begins: I had volunteered to help with the primary school trip.

- Write a story that ends: ... and the teacher never found out.
- A Fresh Start.
- Write about a time when you were asked to babysit.
- Write a story which begins: I'd always been told not to cheat.
- Write a story which ends: I knew I had been very selfish.