What is good attendance?

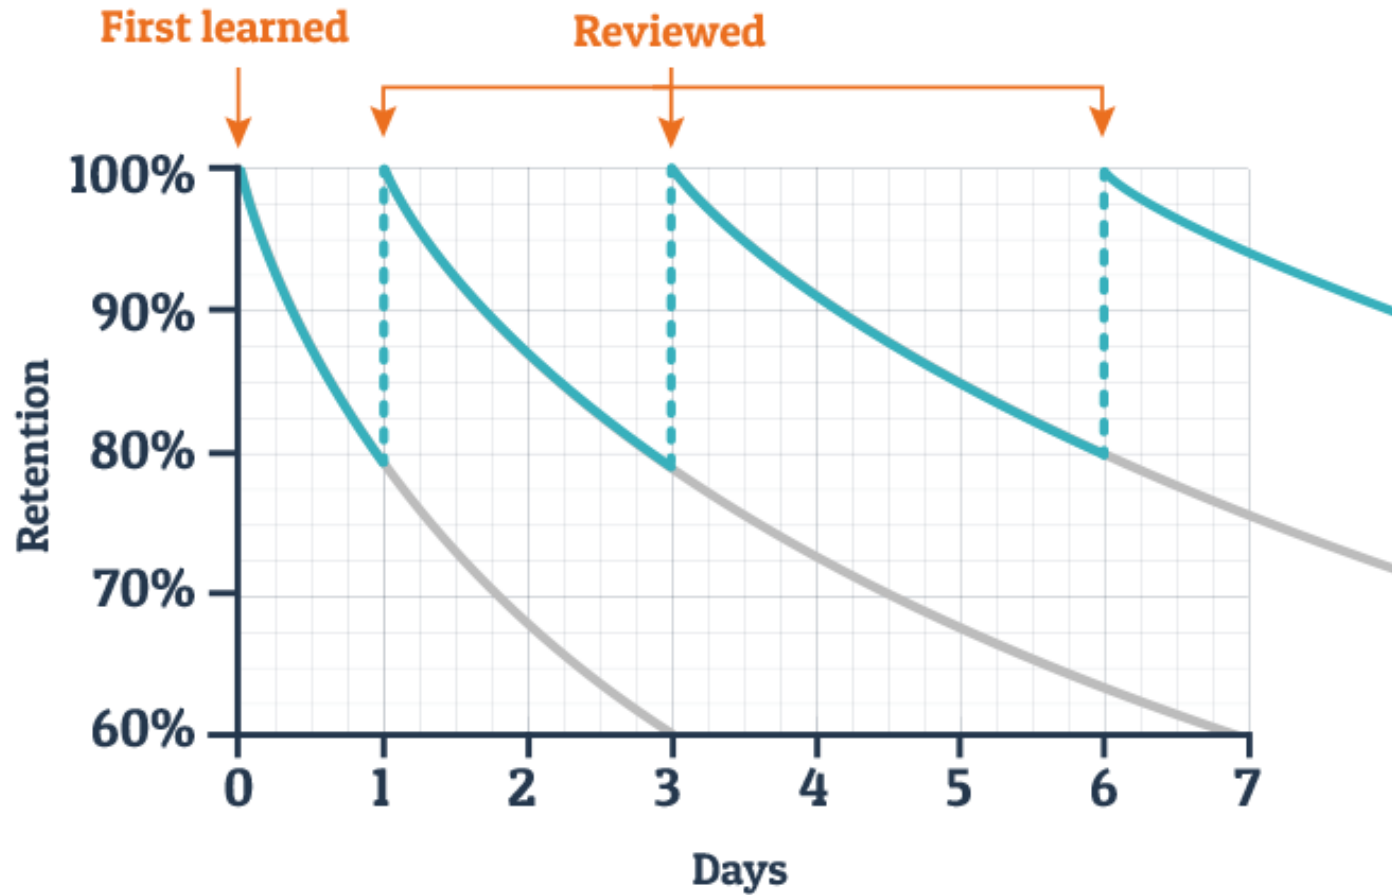

“We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit.”

Aristotle

The forgetting curve

- Communication with teachers during lessons
- Subject support including lunchtime and after school drop-ins
- Personalised support where needed
- Communication with home and subject teachers

- Careers Advisor
- School Counsellors
- School Nurse
- Group support sessions with external agencies.

These are confidential services. We can signpost students to the right support.

The Pastoral Team will not know about the content of any conversations unless there are safeguarding concerns.

Students may access these services without your knowledge.

- Student Health and Wellbeing is a main priority at MBA, we want all our students to be happy and involved and to know they are supported by staff and by their peers.
- A work routine is an important part of student wellbeing alleviating stress and setting boundaries to work hours.
- All students are encouraged to join extra curricular activities to establish habits that allow them to take time out from their studies and promote a positive way of relaxing that will support them in adult life.

Healthy habits for life

There are excellent resources from Young Minds to support parents to support their children

Keeping our students well and happy is undoubtedly the most important aspect of our jobs. If you have any concerns, please do discuss them with the Head of Year. You know your children the best and we are here to support their personal development.

- Ms Pardoe is the strategic lead for safeguarding.
- She can be contacted directly if you have any worries or concerns.
